

Pamela Moore, MA, LPCC, currently serves as a Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor and Program Director of the State Bar of New Mexico Judges and Lawyers Assistance Program (NMJLAP) where she operates a 24-hour helpline for judges, lawyers and law students, provides substance use disorder assessments, referral and monitoring services, educates the legal community on positive health and well-being, and facilitates formal interventions with individuals in need.

Ms. Moore's professional career includes a BS in Industrial Engineering, a Masters Certificate in Human Resources Management, and a license as a Professional Clinical Counselor. She has over 6 years of experience in substance abuse and mental health treatment, is trained in EMDR therapy, and is passionate about assisting, guiding and supporting those that seek to get curious about their life and invite change.